Karin Gunnarsson is leaving her position as CFO in HEXPOL

Karin Gunnarsson has decided to leave her position as Chief Financial Officer and Investor Relations Manager in the HEXPOL Group for new challenges, including commitments in new and existing board assignments.

"It's almost eleven years since I started to work at HEXPOL and it has been very exciting and developing years. It was not an easy decision to leave HEXPOL and all fantastic and competent colleagues, but it's time for me to embrace new challenges" says Karin Gunnarsson.

"I would like to thank Karin for her commitment and efforts during the many years that she has worked for HEXPOL. Karin's experiences and knowledge has further strengthened our financial competences. It is sad that Karin is leaving, but I wish her all the best in her new challenges" says Mikael Fryklund, President and CEO HEXPOL Group.

Karin Gunnarsson will remain in her position during the notice period and possibly longer, until a successor is in place which is estimated to be during the fall 2019.
