

Press release, Malmö, Sweden June 10, 2019

Peter Rosén appointed new CFO of HEXPOL AB

HEXPOL AB (publ.) has appointed Peter Rosén as new CFO of HEXPOL AB (publ.). Peter succeeds Karin Gunnarsson who, as previously communicated, has decided to leave the company. Peter is currently CFO of Resurs Holding AB. Peter's previous roles include, among others, CFO of the Flügger group in Denmark and CFO of Leaf (today Cloetta) Scandinavia.

Peter was born in 1968 and holds an MSc in Economics and Business Administration from the University of Lund.

"We are happy to welcome Peter to HEXPOL and to our Group Management team. With the recruitment of Peter, HEXPOL gets a CFO with a long and solid background as CFO for listed companies. Peter has very successfully driven the finance function in his previous assignments, focusing on working close to the business and has contributed to developing the companies. I'm convinced that Peter, in his new role, will contribute to HEXPOL's continued development."

Mikael Fryklund, President and CEO HEXPOL

Peter Rosén takes on his position no later than December 1 2019.
